CHAMP CLARK TO SPEAK IN STANFORD

SPLENDID COURSE OF FIVE NUMBERS SECURED BY LOCAL LYCEUM CLUB.

The classic course of entertainers ever brought to Stanford has just been secured for the coming fall and winter season by the Stanford Lyceum Club, which has just been organized here by Messrs. J. W. Ireland, Hays Foster, Welch Rochester, and Shelton Sautley. A program of five numbers will be given, at intervals of a month apart, the star attraction of which will be a lecture by Hon. Champ Clark, Speaker of the National House of Representatives and one of the foremost American statesmen of today. The other numbers are Reno, the great magician and three musical events which are of the highest class. Season tickets to the entire five numbers, including Champ Clark are to be sold at $2 each, which makes the price of admission average only 40 cents per performance. However an admission fee of $1 will be charged to the Champ Clark entertainment to those who do not buy season tickets. Holders of season tickets will be given the privilege of having their seats reserved for all five numbers at the time of purchase, if they so desire.

The local Lyceum Club has contracted for with the Rodpath Lyceum Bureau for these high-class numbers. Press and pulpit throughout the country testify to the merit of the courses provided by this association, so that the people of Stanford, Lincoln county and this section of the state may feel assured that they will have the very best entertainers provided for them. Already a large number of season tickets are being booked by the members of the local club, and an active canvass will soon be inaugurated.

If ever a man was equipped for public service that man is Champ Clark. He is magnificent physically standing as he does tall erect and athletic. He is magnificent mentally, and with his wonderful knowledge of history, of law and of men, he holds a record for oratory and debate, that few equalled and none surpassed. Not only is Mr. Clark well equipped for public service and public usefulness, but he holds the record as having used that equipment to a splendid advantage. He has classic diction and inimitable humor and fiery eloquence. As leader of the minority in Congress, few men in the history of that body have equalled him. Some of his speeches have been compared with those of Daniel Webster. His speech on the Cuban question was copied in 22 papers in France alone. As an orator and congressman, Clark has brought fine not only to himself but to the state which he has so long represented. He has made Missouri one of the best advertised states in the Union. Mr. Clark is too well known to need further comment here. His coming will be an event in the history of Stanford.

Reno The Magician
Reno, the magician, has been upon the platform for thirty two years. He has traveled all over the world, including India, Syria and Egypt, studying the magic of those lands. He carries birds, a rabbit and a goose. Very many of his tricks are of his own invention. He gives a full two hours' program.

One of his perormances that never fails to amaze his auditors is known as the "dove trick." He burns a piece of paper, and a dove rises phoenix-like from the ashes. He apparently tears the dove into tiny bits and finds that he has two doves in his hands. He throws a glass of water into the air, and it changes into a dove, and flies away.

Not the least enjoyable feature of Reno's performance is the running of the comment with which he enlivens every thing he does. These fragmentary remarks are full of fun and wit, with flash after flash of good tempered satire aimed at himself or his work. He is a man of fine personality and engaging stage presence, with a keen mentality and an artistic appreciation of the success he has achieved in his profession.

Mendelssohn Quartet
The course is the Mendelssohn Quartet. Another number in the Stanford Company which is something new in male quartets. While appearing in modern dress, they will entertain the spirit of the historic minstrel entertainer. The historic minstrel, it will be recalled, was refined and artistic in treatment, a combination of poet and musician who spent his days traveling from village to village, singing his songs and reciting his verses to all who would hear, from the lords and ladies of court and castle to the humble peasant folk and children of the street, his great genius lying in his ability to adapt his verse and song to fit any occasion, or mood of his listeners. In addition to their vocal work they will perform with violins and cello.

Musical Favorites
For versatility The Musical Favorites, another number on this forthcoming course, have few equals. They will play upon the saxophone, xylophone, piano, violin, cello, three banjos and three mandolins, while Mr. Arthur Love still further varies the program with his poems and readings. The company comprises four people, Arthur Love, Lena L. Love, George L. McNemry and Nina McNemry. Mr. Love for years gave an entire evening's program himself in vocal and instrumental music and humorous selections, many of them being his own composition.

The Orchestral Entertainers.
The Orchestral Entertainers are another versatile company on this program. This company is composed of four young ladies. The instruments which they are to use are: The cornet flute, violin, cello and piano. Their program consists of instrumental solos, duets and orchestral numbers and ensemble vocal music is rendered in conjunction with the orchestral numbers. Humorous reading and whistling solos are also features of the evening.

HUSTONVILLE

Mr. John S. Smith the efficient overseer of the county road up Green river valley from Pinelick Creek is doing the best of road repairing that has been done in the West End of this county in ten years. He deserves to be county road supervisor then we would sure have good roads.

Late news from the South is that our Southpaw twirler Milton McCormack of the South Atlantic League pitched a no hit game last week and the entire League is wild over his work.

The Lincoln county Medical Society met here Tuesday in the parlors of the Weatherford Hotel with an average attendance.

The Masonic fraternity had an elegant banquet in Alcorn's Opera House on Saturday night last with toast and oratorical efforts galore.

Heavy frosts for the past few days are supposed to have about destroyed what was left of the smaller fruits, apples and grapes however are not badly damaged yet.

The tobacco crop has all been marketed in the West End. The prices here have been such that at least fifty per cent of them are so discouraged that they will not pitch another crop this spring. The land does suffer so greatly, but the poor hard working tenant was simply overwhelmed.

The many friends of Mr. Benjamin H. Ashley a well and favorably known former resident, young man of the West End of Lincoln county will be glad to hear of his marriage on March 29th to Miss Cora Adams of the city of Kewanee, Ill. The bride's father, "At the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Corbin, the bride couple took their places under a arch of green and white. The strains of the Lohengrin wedding march were played by Miss Hazel Shumaker. Rev. L. C. Trent, pastor of the Baptist church united them in marriage using the most beautiful ring ceremony. The bride's dress was of embroidered Swiss and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bride is a graduate of the Macomb high school and the State Normal school at that place. For the past four years she has been a most efficient teacher in the Kewanee public schools. But the young people have numerous friends who wish them the greatest happiness and prosperity." And his many Kentucky friends will gladly welcome them to their old Kentucky hospitable home on their return from their bridal tour.

Ed Sherman, a popular troubadour of the Q. & C., who is well known in the West End, was out over near Covington this week and is in a bad shape.

Frank Meredith, formerly of the Jumbo section, had a dance badly smashed in the machine shop at Ludlow.

PREACHERSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Naylor visited Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller.

S. N. Gill sold some 155-pound hogs to J. M. Cross at 6 cents.

Mrs. Malinda Anderson of near Coalton has been quite ill.

A. C. James living near here on the Phillips farm, was thrown by a mule sustained a broken rib.

Our friend J. L. Holtzclaw, of near Walnut Flat, is able to be out again on crutches since his leg was broken by a butting ram some time ago.

Dedicatory Service

HIGHLAND

Farming has been somewhat hindered by the April showers but the cross-the-business is still booming.

Little Freda Speake who has been quite sick for some time is about well again.

Mr. Speake's youngest child, Chester is very sick at his home with tonsillitis.

Rev. J. M. Cook and Mr. Jno. H. Rutt both remain quite feeble. Uncle Isaac Baugh who has also been sick is somewhat better.

Mrs. Ethel Moran is quite sick at this writing.

Since our last report Mr. J. N. Green having sold his farm to some northern man has rented the Austin place and moved into our growing little town.

Mrs. Speake and daughter of near Lancaster, since the death of her husband, some weeks ago, has moved to this place to live with her son Mr. O. G. Speake, who recently lost his wife. Mr. Speake seems to be having a share of trials and trouble since the death of his wife in the loss of a father, a brother-in-law and the sickness of his children. We deeply sympathize with him in his many afflictions and trials.

Mrs. Cora Adams of Danville with her babe Mildred spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Baugh.

Mrs. C. M. Young with her two little daughters, Lucile and Roberta have gone for a 10 days visit to her son Rev. E. E. Young near Booneville and her two daughters, Misses Fannie and Grace at the E. K. S. Richmond.

Mrs. P. D. Green and Mrs. Deatherage visited Mrs. Green's mother near Sopas last week.

Mrs. N. L. Wright who went to see her father Mr. Elder near Big Lick a few days since was accompanied by Miss Anna and Master Alvin.

Misses Effie Young and Zora Baugh have returned from the E. K. S. Richmond.

Miss Annie Butt who was called home from the same school some weeks ago on account of the illness of her mother has gone back to Richmond to resume her studies.

Mrs. Sarah Austin and Jennie Baugh with Stella and Jesse have gone to visit relatives at Somerset.

Many friends and patrons of Dr. Acton regret to give him up as a physician and friend but who can abundant success in his far away Texas home to which he goes this week.

INTERURBAN LINE IN THIS COUNTRY

JOHN M. FARRA OF LANCASTER BEGINS BOOSTING FOR A BIG THING

(W. P. Walton in Lexington Herald)

Mr. John M. Farra of Lancaster who has done a great deal to bring his town and section into the prominence it deserves, was here yesterday to meet some of the officials of the new Kentucky Securities Company which is to take over all the street car and interurban lines in this section, in order to lay before them the advantages that would accrue both to the company and to the section which would be served by extending the interurban line from Nicholasville to Lancaster and ultimately to Stanford and Danville.

The road is already completed to Nicholasville, and the distance from there to Lancaster is some twenty-two miles through a country as rich as any in the state. True the Kentucky river would have to be crossed, but those who have traveled the pike down the gentle decline to the river on this side will recall how easy vehicles pass over it, while on the other side is a valley with moderate grade to Bryansville, thence along a comparatively level plateau to Lancaster.

The road will open up a practically new territory filled with thrifty people who are anxious for an outlet. En route from Nicholasville to Lancaster are a number of small towns. At Camp Nelson there is a large federal cemetery near which a town has sprung up, while at Camp Nelson on the river is one of the largest distilleries in the country. The latter has to rely entirely on the river for transportation of its output and immense amounts of supplies necessary to run the establishment. Then there are Bryansville, Camp Dick Robinson and other smaller towns and villages.

At present, although Lancaster is but thirty-four miles from Lexington it requires a railroad ride of ninety miles and many changes of trains to reach here, besides consuming more than three hours of time. It is really easier for the people of that thriving and progressive little city to go to Cincinnati to do their shopping, which they would be glad to fore if they could.

In order to obtain the road Mr. Farra tells us that the people of Lancaster and Garrard county would contribute liberally to its construction. From what we know of the route and the people it would serve, we are sure that the Securities Company would find it profitable to investigate. It could be built cheaper than the line from Versailles to Frankfort and would open up just a desirable section. It would undoubtedly be a great thing for Lexington while proving of inestimable value to Lancaster as well as Stanford, which so far as reaching this part of the state, is in the same condition as Lancaster, besides proving a paying investment both in passenger and freight traffic.

CARPENTER—LUNSFORD.

Mr. George T. Lunsford and Miss Eliza Carpenter, of Preachersville were united in wedlock at the Baptist parsonage by pastor J. B. Jones on Tuesday April 11th. The many friends of this splendid young couple wish them much happiness and success. They will make their home at Preachersville.

Tom Hurley

VETERAN ENGINEER GOES OUT ON HIS LAST RUN

Tom Hurley, one of the best known and most popular engineers on the L. & N., died at a hospital in Louisville Wednesday after a short illness of stomach trouble. The remains passed through here Thursday morning en route to Richmond, where the interment took place this afternoon. Engineer Hurley lived in Stanford for many years, when he ran on this division of the L. & N., and was known and liked by everyone. He married Miss Nan McCarty, a niece of Sheriff W. L. McCarty and is survived by her and three children.

For several years lately he had been running on the passenger train from Louisville to Greensburg, and he was just as popular on that division as he had been on this. A great many friends here will mourn that good old Tom Hurley is no more.

Springfield Man

COMES HERE TO SELL TOBACCO TO W. P. KINCAID

W. P. Kincaid this week bought the tobacco crop of K. Dunagan, of the Danville pike, at an average of six cents a pound. Mr. Dunagan had about 30,000 pounds in his crop and some of it was extra weed.

Mr. Kincaid also bought the crop cents a pound. This crop consisted of James Swope, of Danville, at 1 1/2 about 15,000 pounds and was classy stuff.

G. W. Cash, of Springfield, drove through with his crop and sold it to Kincaid at 6 1/2 cents. He only has a small crop of about 4,000 pounds.

CRAB ORCHARD

One of our Crab Orchard boys is to get married soon. Mr. Thomas Collier is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Collier. The following is from the Elizabethtown News:

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ashlock announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Kathleen Ashlock to Mr. Thomas Carpenter Collier, of Louisville.

The marriage will be solemnized on the afternoon of April the twenty-fourth at the home of the bride in this city.

Only the immediate families of the contracting parties will be present. Rev. Henry H. Sweets, of Louisville, uncle of the bride, will be the officiating minister.

The bride is a very popular and amiable girl and by her kindly disposition and gentle manners has endeared herself to scores of friends in a lasting manner.

The groom is a Central Kentucky man but now holds a clerical position with the L. & N. in Louisville. He has visited Elizabethtown upon several different occasions and has made a very favorable impression upon those whom he has met.

Mrs. Boyle Gil Boyle, of Louisville, is visiting her parents, Col. and Mrs. James Guest.

Mrs. A. B. Bastin is quite ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. James Jones is quite sick, the symptoms being those of typhoid fever.

There is much work going on at the Crab Orchard Sanatorium. Twenty new rooms are being added to accommodate the increasing number of patients and other improvement work is being done.

Mrs. R. F. Jordan, of Corbin, visited friends at Crab Orchard and then went to Preachersville to spend a few days with her son, Walter Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders and bright little son spent Sunday with the homefolks near Lancaster.

MORELAND

There will be special Easter services at the Moreland Christian church Sunday evening. Special Easter music by the choir and special talent. The pastor, Rev. W. G. Montgomery will preach on "The Resurrection."

There will be an Easter entertainment at the Methodist church next Sunday night. Every one is invited and we think it will be well worth your time to come.

Little Elizabeth Pruitt, of Burnside, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here.

Miss Sue F. Purdon who is teaching in Burnside spent Saturday and Sunday at home. She was accompanied by her friend Mrs. Daggar of Burnside.

Mrs. Harris Rakestraw, of Campbellsville, spent a few days here.

Mrs. Eliza Hanson and Ada Pruitt and James Thompson spent Friday and Saturday in Junction City.

MIDDLEBURG

C. B. Porch, of Somerset, is at Golden Luma Springs. Capt. Thos. Hutchinson is boarding with M. G. Jones. William Murphy, of McKinney spent several days with his sister Mrs. McD. Fogle. Will Jones son of Q. R. Jones will start Saturday to Broad Ripple, Ind., where he has secured a job.

The trustees of the graded school have posted notices of another election to be held Saturday on the bond proposition. This will make the third time this question has been submitted and the opposition seems to be as determined as ever there is but little hope of the proposition carrying now. The fight promises to be a warm one as both sides have lined up and are ready for business.

The Sunday School Union of the South Kentucky Association will be held at the Baptist church here on April 29, to 30.

Whooping cough is worrying some of the little folks here about. A meeting of the graded school people was held at the college Monday night to devise means of promoting the interest of the bond question to be voted on here Saturday.

John Coulter sold to Land & Lutes 23 head of mixed cattle at from 1 1/2 to 5 cents. He bought of Jesse Fogle a nice bunch of shoats at 6 1/2.

Will Jones sold a two-year-old German coach horse to W. B. Wall for $115.

OTTENHEIM

Mrs. Richard Wientjes is able to be out again after her bad attack of fever.

Father Leo made his annual trip to his mission and will visit Rev. P. Omond from Sunday evening to Monday at Louisville.

Miss Helen Wientjes returned home after several months stay in Chicago. Miss Theresa will come later.

Mr. Christian Jacobs left last night for Cincinnati to seek a location. His family expect to go in two weeks. St. Sylvestra's German school is doing nicely with Rev. Father Leo as teacher.

Several people took advantage of the cheap rate and went to Cincinnati Sunday.

Wednesday night after church all went to the store of John Wentzel our clever merchant, to view the fine display of ladies hats which he has for Easter. The ladies enjoyed it very much with their "oh mys" and "that is a beauty and so is that," but oh you men. They put their money in the other pocket and made long faces and the future candidates will be glad to know they talked politics.

The Swiss Club met at the home of Henry Kidder Sunday evening. All report a good time.

Rev. J. J. Dickey will preach at Rowland Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

JOHN SHANKS PULLIAM

On March 19, 1911 the death angel visited the home of Mrs. Thomas Pulliam and took little Johnnie Shanks, her 15 months old child. He was a wonderful child, radiantly beautiful, tenderly affectionate and intelligent beyond his months; a bright beam of sunshine in the home and an untiring source of joy to his parents and relatives. Little Johnnie had pneumonia and all that loving hands could do to relieve the little sufferer was done but God knew best. No hopes we could cherish are to be compared with the glorious realities that are now his. The little body was laid to rest in the Fairview church burying ground on March 20. Much sympathy is extended to the heart broken mother.

A Loving Aunt

Mrs. Wallace Walter has been visiting her brother of Stanford.

STANFORD HAS 1,532 POPULATION

CENSUS BUREAU GIVES OFFICIAL FIGURES ON POPULATION OF SMALL TOWNS

Stanford has a population of 1,532. At least, that's what "Uncle Sam's" census bureau says, and it ought to know. At that, however, Stanford has 25 more population than Lancaster, which compensates some for the ignominy of learning that this beautiful little burg is not above the 2,600 mark, which many thought would be the figure after the 1910 census.

The United States census bureau gave out the figures on some of the smaller Kentucky cities this week including Stanford, which are as follows:

Stanford	1,532
Lexington	1,152
Lancaster	1,501

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
For Circuit Judge.
HON. CHARLES A. HARDIN,
of Mercer County

The Louisville Herald comes out in a double column leader in favor of the initiative, referendum and recall. We want it to distinctly understand we "saw them first". The Interior Journal has been advocating these progressive democratic measures for 10, these many moons, and we welcome the Herald into the ranks even though it is a republican sheet. But like its many fellow insurgents in the G. O. P., it is simply appropriating democratic doctrines.

The Bowling Green papers are squabbling over which has the largest circulation and our old time friend Ed Leigh seems to have all the logic on his side. Anyway there are mighty few papers which are better gotten up, nicer looking or have more fat advertising than his Messenger. And though we do not always agree with some of his editorial thoughts, Editor Ed always makes whatever he says mighty readable.

It's up to Mayor Florence to demand a recount of Stanford's census. There are certainly more than 1500 people in town. In the event a census department official is sent to look over the situation here, we suggest he come some court day. There were at least 5,000 people in town last Monday.

The Danville Advocate is bragging that Danville has a larger population than both Stanford and Harrodsburg combined. Yet we'll wager that Stanford's newspaper has a larger subscription list than both of Danville's papers combined.

Well we have 25 more people in Stanford than our good neighbor Lancaster. That's something to be thankful for.

As that Stanford is the best and biggest little city in the world.

Spoonamore-Rivers

PROMINENT YOUNG DOCTOR
WEDS HEDGEVILLE BELLE

The nuptial ceremony that united two hearts beat as one was said by the Rev. Dr. Powell of the First Christian church, of Louisville, at high noon Saturday April 8, in the spacious parlors of the Seelbach Hotel when he pronounced Miss Ada Spoonamore, of Hedgeville, and Dr. Leslie Rivers, of Indianapolis, man and wife. The bride was gowned in white satin with hat and gloves to match. Her trousseau was elegant and extensive and would fill the ideal dreams of the most optimistic bride. That she is a beautiful and talented bride goes without saying and she goes without saying and she numbers her friends by her acquaintances.

This wedding was the culmination of a little romance that is too long for recital here but not unlike Hiawatha of Indian legend when he went on a visit to the land of the Dakotas, Dr. Rivers tarried long and yet longer at the home of his lady love.

Dr. Rivers frequently donned those magic moccasins with which he could measure a mile at each step and made many return visits to the beautiful blue-eyed beauty in the far famed bluegrass valleys of the historic commonwealth of Kentucky.

After a sumptuous repast the bridegroom and his traveling suit with hat and gloves to match and they departed for Chicago and other places of interest along Lake Michigan. After a few days' sojourn they will be at home to their many friends at Indianapolis after which they will go to Oklahoma City to live where Dr. Rivers will practice the profession of his choice.

The wedding was witnessed by only a few friends and relatives. The bride's maid was Miss Lucy Spoonamore, a cousin and consistent companion of the bride. The best man was Dr. J. H. Deere of Louisville. This happy young couple start wedded life with best wishes of a host of friends and admirers.

The Bible is printed in more than fifty languages at the Bible House in New York city.

JOHN MORTON FLORENCE A Good Life Ended.

On the evening of March 8 1911, John Morton Florence was called from our midst into the presence of Him whom not having seen he loved. He was 57 years of age and a native of this state, born in Harrison county where he spent most of his life until about 7 years ago he purchased a home in Lincoln county and moved to it in order to benefit his health, which became very good until about 4 years ago when he contracted a severe cold which went into tuberculosis, which was the principal cause of his death. His faith in the Lord was very strong. He said, "My Way is Clear". He prayed that he would not choke to death, and when the end came he gave friends that had watched over him his hands and peacefully passed away as one going to sleep. He had been a member of the Christian church for several years. Also was a member of the Masonic order for several years. He was willing and ready at all times to help anyone in need. He was a good neighbor and a kind and loving husband and father. He was survived by his wife formerly Miss Bettie Henry and 7 children namely: Elbert of Fayette, Wesley, of Bourbon, Joseph, of Harrison, Ottis, George, Kate, Anna, of Lincoln county. Burial at Buffalo cemetery, at Stanford March 10, at three P. M., services conducted at the grave by Rev. J. B. Jones, minister of the Baptist church and by the Masonic order. L. O. F.

EDNA B. SEARS.

In memory of Edna B. Sears, who died March 13, 1911 at the home of her uncle O. C. Smith in Nicholas county. How feeble are words to carry consolation to hearts bereaved of a beloved daughter. A tender clinging vine, interwoven in sweet memories, from the hour the angel first gave her to your home, a gentle spirit of light that flittered in and out like a gleam of sunshine. No one can fill her place in the vacant chair, no one will take her place in your hearts, dear parents and you would not have the void filled, even is you could. It will be a sacred thought in the years to come, to parents and friends, that she shed radiance in the home as long as she did. It will be a blessed recollection that she grew up to love and be loved by those who will ever so tenderly cherish her sweet and pure memory. A friend, Stella Wasson, Carlisle, Ky.

MRS. MARY ANDERSON.

Mrs. Mary Anderson, wife of Daniel Anderson died at her home near Ottenheim Thursday evening April 6, 1911, after a short illness of a complication of troubles aged 67. She was a member of the Christian church and a regular attendant as long as her health would permit. She was a kind good neighbor, generous to all, and was loved by all who knew her. Her aged husband who survives her and her children and grandchildren have sustained an irreparable loss. Truly a good woman has gone to her reward and may those who weep realize that their loss is her eternal gain. After short services the remains were laid to rest in the old Epiphany burying ground to await the resurrection morn.

Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land. So free from all sorrow and pain. With songs on our lips and with harp in our hands, To meet one another again. A.

BOWEN.

Mr. D. R. Moore, who lives near Bowden, had five head of cattle to die recently of a strange disease. The symptoms of the ailment were a constant bawl, and an intense slaverling, some of the victims being inclined to be vicious. The Junction City veterinary Dr. Helm, at a post-mortem examination, found their brains to be swimming in water and the lights were affected. The disease has completely stopped, after causing Mr. Moore a loss of over $200.

William Carney left for Ashland, Ill., Geo. Statem is going to Indiana.

Mrs. Pat McGirr has returned from a visit to her son at Ashland, Ill., and is delighted with that state.

Mrs. Hezekiah Young of this place is very ill of dropsy.

Mrs. Mack Moore, who is one of the best women in the West End, has been quite ill of a complication of troubles. She has not been able to walk any for a year. She is much better at this writing.

FRIENDSHIPS.

Never cast aside your friends if by any possibility you can retain them. We are the weakest of spendthrifts if we let one drop off through inattention or let one push away another or if we hold aloof from one through petty jealousy or heedless slight.

DR. C. F. CREELIUS, CANDIDATE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

The above is a fairly good likeness of a popular young democrat, of Pendleton county, who is seeking the democratic nomination for Secretary of State in the primary on July 1. He was in Stanford Thursday meeting the democrats and made a very favorable impression on all.

Dr. Creelius has been a leader in the lower House of the Legislature for several sessions. He is the author of the famous Creelius tobacco law, which gave the tobacco growers the right to pool their crops. He also had a leading part in the framing of much progressive school legislation, and in fact, led the fight for a great many bills which mean better things for Kentucky.

ALLEY GREGOR---43401.

Record, 2:19 3-4.

Trotter---Chestnut Stallion About 16 Hands, 8 Years Old. Registered, Volume 17.

ALLEY GREGOR is one of the best trotting Stallions in Kentucky. He has a lot of style and finish and is a great acting horse. Don't wear any boots, just 9 ounce shoes. He ought to make a great sire. His oldest colts are coming two's and show great speed and action. Any one wishing to see one of them can do so on the Lexington track where they are now in training. This is a great chance for the people of Lincoln County to breed into the best families of the trotting blood. Look this horse's breeding over and see how many they have in the list both sire and dam. This great trotting Stallion will make the season of 1911 at my stable in Lancaster, Kentucky.

Good Liver Remedy Free

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloaty feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.

What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample bottle.

Thousands of people first learned of this remarkable cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles through a free sample. Mrs. Frank Lilly of Plainview, Ill., sent for one and it cured her and she is open in saying that she will never take pills or strong cathartics again, as Syrup Pepsin acts so mildly. Mr.
W. L. Bryant, the Postmaster at Sardinia, Tenn., says he will never be without it again. No sick person can afford to ignore a remedy so highly endorsed as this. It is good for all the family from infancy to old age, because it is mild, free from griping and yet promptly effective. Furthermore, results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has special interest in the liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr.
W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

an eleven-year-old mare which now has her eighth mule by her side.
Stockmen say this is a remarkable good record.
W. M. Davis sold some corn to Sterling Davis at $3.
M. F. Lawrence bought a thoroughbred Duroc Jersey sow and 10 pigs of J. M. Cress for $35. He also bought a pair of same breed of hogs of Col. R.
H. Bronaugh at a fancy price.
Horton Bros., of Waynesburg bought 28 head of mixed cattle at from $11 to $28. They sold a bunch at $16 to $26.
Mrs. F. M. Campbell, of Maywood, sold from 43 hens, since Jan. 1st, eggs amounting to $28.45, besides an ample supply for hatching.
Sweeney, Morgan bought 30 head of 160-pound hogs from Elijah King at 5 1/4 cents.

mares to Dan Traylor for $170. He sold a pair to Wm. Wilcher for $400 and another pair to A. W. Carpenter for $425. Tol Timberlake bought one for $215. All of these mares will make mighty fine mule producers.

In The East End

Crab Orchard, April 5.
When in Crab Orchard you will have a pleasant visit if you call upon clever J. T. Chadwick and family. Mr.
made a short call and had a pleasant visit. This gentleman is a wide awake citizen and very properly appreciates the good work being done by the Crab Orchard Graded School. His little daughter Miss Melsadie, has neither been absent nor tardy in the last three school terms. She is in the seventh grade and getting along nicely in all her studies, but is especially bright in mathematics. All her school reports are exceptionally fine. As soon as school is out Mr. Chadwick, wife and daughter will go to Detroit to visit their son and brother, John Chadwick.
Mr. A. B. Bastin is having a nice new seven room cottage built about a mile out on the Stanford pike. Mr.
J. D. Anderson is doing the work.
"Aunt Sue" Whitley, the widow of Bill Whitley, colored died yesterday, aged 72 after a short illness of general debility. Born in slavery and belonged to the Foley Family. Deceased was a fine cook and nurse her services being constantly in demand. She was well liked by all, both white and colored and now that she is gone will be missed badly. Was a member of the Baptist church. Was buried by the U. B. F., after funeral by Rev.
A. G. Chandler, colored.
Word received here Sat. Thursday evening from Bee Lick stated that a three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maxwell had been instantly killed by a stack of lumber blowing down. The father of the child had stacked the lumber up that morning to dry, and the children were playing under it when the wind toppled it over. The little boy was injured but not dangerously. The child was buried at Bethel church. Only two weeks ago the Maxwells lost another child by pneumonia. They have the sympathy of every one.
Messrs. A. H. Knoakes and John Moes are busy grading the road in front of their farms. They are making a good job of it. They do not get any money for their work, but will have the satisfaction of knowing that live people live in these parts.

DIsraell's Cowardice.
Mrs. DIsraell once said to an astonished circle in an English country house: "Dizzy has the most wonderful moral and political courage, but he has no physical courage. I always have to pull the string of his shower bath."

Discouraged

The expression occurs so many times in letters from sick women, "I was completely discouraged." And there is always good reason for the discouragement. Years of pain and suffering. Doctor after doctor tried in vain.
Medicines doing no lasting good. It is no wonder that the woman feels discouraged.
Thousands of these weak and sick women have found health and courage regained as the result of the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
It establishes regularity, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures weakness.
IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG

Baking a Souffle.
A souffle should never be put into a very hot oven. It crists over on top before it has time to bake properly inside, and it is likely to fall as soon as it comes from the oven. Bake it in a moderate temperature and do not bake it too fast.
